SAY NO TO FUNDING CUTS AND CENSORSHIP

"Ban Books or Lose Funding"

That is what Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft is saying to Missouri's public libraries. He wants to give small groups of extremists the power to stop your children from reading books he doesn't like. If your public library doesn't comply with his demands, he wants to take away their funding.

Too many Missouri politicians like Ashcroft are trying to control what you and your children are allowed to read. Beginning November 15, the public will have a month to submit comments on Ashcroft's demands. Let's tell him NO – we support our public libraries and our children's freedom to read!

Protect your rights and the rights of your children by submitting a public comment against Proposed Rule 15 CSR 30-200.015.

Ways to submit a public comment:

- Email comments@sos.mo.gov (write the proposed rule number, 15 CSR 30-200.015, as the subject)
- Scan the QR code below and mail your completed public comment form to Missouri Secretary of State, P.O. Box 1767, Jefferson City, MO 65102.
